About Alpha Spices

Alpha Spices is an India-based spice sourcing and supply initiative focused on serving buyers in the UAE, Saudi Arabia and the wider GCC. We aim to work with importers, distributors, retailers and foodservice businesses seeking Indian spices, bulk supply and private-label solutions.

Our approach

- Product sourcing from India based on buyer requirements
- Samples for product evaluation before commercial discussions
- Retail and bulk pack options depending on buyer requirements
- Private-label and custom packaging discussions
- Flexible product and packaging specifications for different markets

Buyer-first sourcing

Final pack sizes, specifications and commercial terms can be tailored to the buyer, product category, destination and order quantity. Our initial process is sample evaluation → specification → quotation → commercial discussion → trial order.

Additional requirements

Custom spice blends, whole spices, bulk formats and other product requirements can be discussed based on buyer demand and supplier capability.

Private Label & Custom Packaging

For buyers who want their own brand, Alpha Spices can explore private-label supply and customized packaging through suitable Indian manufacturing and packaging partners.

Private Label	Packaging
Own-brand spice products Custom product specifications Retail & bulk formats	Printed pouches Labels & artwork Pack-size options Packaging specifications

How we work

1. Understand the buyer's product and market requirement
2. Share available product/sample options
3. Confirm product specification and packaging requirement
4. Discuss MOQ, pricing and lead time
5. Proceed with a trial order after commercial approval

Important

MOQ, pricing, packaging material, lead time and documentation depend on the product, pack format, order quantity and destination. These details are confirmed during quotation and commercial discussions.

Why Work With Alpha Spices

- Indian-origin spice sourcing
- Buyer-specific product and pack requirements
- Samples before commercial commitment
- Private-label and custom packaging discussions
- UAE market contact through our Dubai-based partner
- Focus on long-term B2B relationships

Let's Discuss Your Requirement

Tell us the products you are looking for, your preferred pack size or bulk format, estimated quantity, destination and whether you require your own private label. We can then discuss sample and quotation requirements.
